Wyckoff, pastor of the Second Congregational church, was given by the combined Sunday schools of the city in the Davis theater Monday

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young—is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under the eyes—pimples—bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 16c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Wyckoff, the director, were called before the curtain and given enthusiastic applause. The programme, with the participants, follows:

SUES TO COLLECT ON FIRE INSURANCE POLICY.
 Trial of Case Underway in Superior Court at New London.

A claim for fire insurance is the basis of the suit of Mrs. Mary Longo of New London against the city of New York Fire Insurance company, which was being tried in the superior court which convened in New London Tuesday, with Judge Gardiner Greene on the bench. Court came in at 10 o'clock, and Judge Greene opened the criminal term of the superior court, which was adjourned from last Friday, and then immediately adjourned it until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The case of Mrs. Longo against the city of New York Fire Insurance company was then started, the case having been assigned for trial Monday. The plaintiff seeks to recover insurance on loss of stock and fixtures by fire nearly three years ago. On Feb. 24, 1910, Mrs. Longo's meat and grocery store at 19 Shaw street was damaged by fire. October 2 of the previous year she had taken out a policy of $500 with the defendant company through the agency of Augustus C. Stearns. On October 29 the company gained possession of the policy, which it claimed was cancelled. When Mrs. Longo applied for her insurance it was denied by the company, which claimed that the policy had been previously cancelled. Mrs. Longo, however, claimed that she did not understand that the policy had been cancelled, and that it was still in force, and claimed her money. The policy had been made out for $800, $750 of which was on the stock of groceries and meat and $50 on the fixtures. The plaintiff alleges that the policy was fraudulently obtained from her by the company, while the defendant company denies this and claims that it was surrendered by Mrs. Longo with her full consent and knowledge that it was to be cancelled. The case occupied the court all day, and owing to the necessity of using an interpreter, several of the witnesses being Italians, the trial is progressing slowly. The divorce suit of Ellonsky vs. Ellonsky, which was assigned for trial Monday, was not reached. The case of Whitcomb vs. the Connecticut company, assigned for Wednesday, went off for reassignment.

ADJUTANT GENERAL COLE GOES TO WASHINGTON.
 Says Trip Has Nothing to do With Mexican Situation.

Adjutant-General Cole went to Washington Tuesday evening, to visit the war department and talk over the routine business of the Connecticut state militia. He stated before he left that the trip had absolutely nothing to do with the Mexican troubles, but was one of his ordinary visits to the department. He said, however, that the Connecticut militia is in readiness for service if called upon. "One of the first things they would ask us to do in case of war," he said, "would be to recruit up to 108 enlisted men to a company. That would mean an increase of from 40 to 50 men in each company all over the state. The peace strength is 85 enlisted men. 108 enlisted men is the war strength. We have sufficient equipment in the arsenal for the militia raised to war strength, except for rifles. They would be sent down from the arsenal in Springfield very quickly, if needed, on telegraphic requisition. Should the companies be raised to war strength and should they be equipped accordingly there would be an issue of equipment from the arsenal in Hartford, to the various companies in the state."

No orders have been received, however, by the general, looking to the placing of the guard upon a war footing. There is a feeling at the regimental headquarters that if President Wilson really has sent the reported ultimatum to President Huerta the prospect is for military invasion of Mexico; for the opinion among the officers there is that the Mexican president will not back down.

Gets Gift from Gates Estate.
 Christ Episcopal church of Gody, Wyo., of which Rev. Stephen E. McGinley, son of Postmaster and Mrs. John McGinley, of New London, is rector, was made a gift of $2,200 by Charles G. Gates, the Texas oil magnate, who died last week in his private car there. The gift was made the day before he died. Mr. Gates had attended a service at the church after meeting Mr. McGinley and later he gave him the money to be used as the church deemed best. Mr. Gates also presented Mr. McGinley a handsome fur coat.
